

Leyanna McIntosh
Brooklyn College Academy
350 Coney Island Avenue
Brooklyn, New York 11218

Summary: I am a creative, motivated, and enthusiastic high school student who is seeking an opportunity to enhance my learning in a range of disciplines that is not available in my school community. Also, I would like to apply my critical thinking skills and further develop my abilities and passion for the arts, science, and technology.

Experience & Skills

- Time management and prioritization
- Discipline and self-motivated
- Problem-solving, communication, team worker, and builder
- Active Listening, decision-making, leadership
- Strong writing and communication skills

Education:

Brooklyn College Academy:

Graduation date: June 15, 2023

GPA: 88.97% (3.5) as of June 2022

Experiences & Activities:

Girl Scouts 2010-2017 building a sisterhood; joy, friendship, volunteer work in the community; cross-cultural interactions; and environmental stewardship; girls develop their courage and strength.

Black Girls Code March 2020-2021 computer programming and technology in fields like web design, gaming, mobile app development, and more.

Gye Nyame dance Division September 2012-Present Dance Performer of the Year, June 2019, and other distinguishable awards; Performed on stage as a lead dancer; mentored younger dancers on technique; knowledge of dance techniques and choreography; trained in classical and modern dance and learned new choreography for praise performances; and presently an assistant dance instructor

Dawana. Smallwood Dance September 2018 -October 2021 Dance with the Youth Ensemble

Collaborated with supervisors to create and instruct youth dancers (Ages 3-9) in developing their dance skills in preparation for culminating activities; participated in various technique courses in classic ballet, African and modern dance

Stuy Park Leo Club March 7, 2020- present As a vice-president, focused on engaging youths in positive activities in the community description: clothing and toy drives, book give-away, homeless shelter outreach- Feed the Hungry; overseeing/participating in community events, such as Childhood Cancer Month; Leukemia Walk, Breast Cancer Walk (2022); Special event outreach organizer for childhood cancer; Toy Drives

Code Next August 2020- present Deepening my knowledge and skills in coding and JavaScript; created a marketing video and designed a website; Learned to integrate technology and coding into my daily life; participated in asynchronous and synchronous webinars, events, and workshops; serve as a troubleshooter, designer, and problem-solver; engage in monthly community events, such as culminating projects for family and friends

Awards & Achievements

Honor roll 2014- present

- Perfect Attendance
- Speaker's Achievement Award
- Certificate of Merit for Perfect Attendance
- New York City Council Certificate of Recognition for Highest Academic Achievement
- Nominated the Youth of the Year December 2022 (Leo's Club)